“ Goodbye, My Dearest Friend
Leilani Hermosa Petersen

The hardest part of any friendship is when it is time to say goodbye,
and even though I wished I could make you stay,
I know I have to let you spread your wings and fly.

For life is a journey that needs to be traveled,
and I am certain you'll make it through.
I just want you to know and never forget that I will surely miss you.

So follow your heart and never give up,
as dreams and wishes do come true.
I know that someday we'll meet again,
so never forget I will be praying for you.

“ To my cousin Bertha (Micky) and family, I am praying for you all. Fawn was such a lovely person. We would have conversations at the Clinic, long talks when she worked at Penn Fish House. She fought a hard fight, she fought a good fight, NOW, her work is done, she has finished her course, God said it is done, time for your rest. Earth has no sorrow that HEAVEN can't heal. With Love, Neva and family.
