“ I first became acquainted with Amaad when he was about five years old. He would sit near me at church. He was quiet, but sometimes he seemed bored. I would create word search puzzles on extra paper from my purse, and he would complete the puzzles as I turned my attention back to the worship service. Any time I encountered him I was met with a smile, and sometimes a hug. He was such a special young man.

“ *In loving memory of Amaad Kavon Campbell,
May you be comforted by the outpouring of love surrounding you.
Amaad was a very caring and respectful young man. I will always remember how you were the only one of Ashlee and Antonio's friends who called me Mrs. Darden and not Miss. We will always remember your kindness and smile. We loved you so.*
