

Mrs. Anglur Gail Johnson

August 4, 1963 - July 20, 2019

A Time to be Born

Sister Anglur “Gail” Johnson was the youngest child born to the late Prentiss “Bobby Joe” Everett and the late Nora Lee Nobles. Gail was born August 4, 1963 and was raised in Waynesboro, MS.

A Time to Die

An angel of the Lord came and called her home to rest on Saturday, July 20, 2019 at Mississippi Baptist Medical Center in Jackson, MS following a brief illness.

A Time to Serve

Anglur “Gail” accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and united with Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church. She graduated from Waynesboro Central in 1981 after graduation, she worked on various jobs throughout the Wayne County area. In August of 1981, she furthered her education by attending Jones County Junior College, and later moved to Jackson, MS where she attended Thee Jackson State University from August 1983 until May 1987, earning a degree in Business Accounting. With a deep rooted love for Mississippi, Gail found happiness in Rankin County and united with Sweet Home Church of Christ Holiness USA where she was a faithful member. She served as a member of the United Christian Women’s Ministry, Leader of the Daughters’ of Ester and children’s ministry, and a member of the kitchen committee. She was employed as a pharmacy technician formally known as Rite Aid Pharmacy, which is currently Walgreens Pharmacy, for nearly 30 years. Gail had a love for people and was always willing to lend a helping hand. She was always smiling and eager to go above and beyond to help others. She never thought of herself as too good, and was never far when a helping hand was needed. Her knowledge and advice in the field of medicine will always be remembered, for she wanted everyone to take good care of themselves at all times.

A Time to Love

Anglur "Gail" met and married the love of her life, Mr. Jerry Johnson on December 19, 1992 and through this union no children were born. They were blessed and honored to have 3 godchildren: Keyonna, Buchanan, Cedrick Hough, and Amber Hill.
