“ Trips to Jackson will not be the same without visits to my dear, sweet friend, Ms Annie. She lived next door to my brother for years and a friendship developed between us that was truly a blessing from God. When I was in Jackson, we had daily (often multiple) visits and conversations. When I was back home in Louisville, we kept in touch through cards and phone calls. I will miss her dearly, but I know my wonderful friend is resting in the arms of Jesus.
