

Mr. Antonia Patreal Coleman

October 3, 1961 - November 4, 2025

Anthony Coleman was born in Jackson, MS. on October 3, 1961, to Billy Ray Coleman and Ann West. Anthony Coleman was dedicated to being a caregiver taking care of the young children and the elderly people and serving others. Anthony was dedicated to being a hard worker at whatever he did. He was a laborer at doing yard work and enjoyed painting houses. He attended Callaway High School and graduated from Job Core where he attended for Landscaping. He has also worked at Whitfield as a caregiver.

Anthony Coleman accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He joined Sand Hill Church where he was also baptized and served as a member and was a devoted member for many years.

Anthony Coleman loved to spend his quality time talking with people and making others laugh. He spent his spare time landscaping, painting, helping others when needed. He was known as Jack of all trade, but master of none.

Anthony Coleman fought the good fight, kept the faith and finished the race here on earth. He transitioned to everlasting life November 4, 2025 at Haven Hall located in Brookhaven, MS.

Anthony Coleman leaves to cherish his love, life, and memories to his Special cousin, Debra "Molly" Coleman from Brandon, MS.; Mother Ann West (Willie) of Jackson, MS., two brothers, Eddie "Teddy" Coleman (Karen) of Clinton, MS; and William "Tracey" Coleman (Patti) of Hattiesburg, MS; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and other loving family members and many friends.

“ Rest in peace Sac. You are truly missed. Make the work you done Speak for you. You always did anything that my Mama would ask you to do and for that I say thank you. I remember the time you cut that tree limp from over my house then you said “ You need to cut the tree down.” lol.. I’m Praying for the Coleman Family.
