

Arlean Marie Wilson

March 10, 1940 - April 11, 2018

On March 10, 1940, Arlean Marie Taylor Wilson and her twin Albert Dean Taylor who preceded her in death was born to the union of Charlie and Mary Crushfield Taylor in Brandon, MS. Albert Dean and Arlean were the babies of ten children. Also preceded her in death was six siblings, James W. Taylor, Sr., Vinie Mae Taylor, Clemmie and Lemmie Taylor, Carlester and Carlene Davis Taylor.

Arlean transitioned this life into eternal rest on April 11 , 2018 at St. Dominic Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Arlean attended Piney Woods Schools where she received a high school diploma and graduated with an associate degree. During her time at Piney Woods School she learned how to play the piano. She married Arther Earl Wilson and to this union one child was born, Arther S. Wilson, known as "Mike", the love of her life. Both preceded her in death.

Arlean was a faithful member of Pleasant Grove Church until her health failed her. Under the leadership of Pastor Clevie Snell, she accepted Christ as her personal Savior. Arlean was the musician for Pleasant Grove Church as well as Pine Valley and many other churches around the community and in Jackson, MS.

Arlean retired from the Pearl School District where she worked as a cafeteria worker. During her retirement she was able to focus on her favorite talent, playing the piano.

The Taylor-Wilson family would like to acknowledge with great appreciation and special thanks to Aaron Taylor, nephew and Earlean Taylor Hill, niece for being supportive and patiently by her side through her lengthy illness. They nicknamed her "Skinny Legs", a name that always brought laughter from her. She leaves to cherish her memories: one brother, John Clifton Taylor (Shirley) of Phoenix, AZ; one sister, Ida Mae Francis of Jackson, MS; three sisters-in-law, Annie Mae Taylor, Pearl, MS; Mattie Wilson Taylor, Diane Taylor, both of Brandon, MS; a special nephew, Aaron Taylor and a special niece, Earlean Taylor Hill, both of Pearl, MS and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and many many friends.
