“ I would like to say that having you as my grandmother has been a blessing and a learning experience for all of us. You were always up front about everything you felt and never held anything back. That is the best part of you that I loved so much. You lived your life to the fullest and made sure to look your best when you left your house with your best wig on and your shades just in case you ran into you a boyfriend while out. LOL, you will truly be missed. Love you lots
