

Mrs. Bobbie Jean Lynn

January 26, 1954 - April 15, 2025

We gather here today, surrounded by love and support, to honor and celebrate the beautiful life of our cherished Bobbie Jean Lynn.

Bobbie Jean was born on January 26, 1954, to the late Jesse Riley and Clairmae Riley in the small town of Brandon, Mississippi. As the youngest of seven siblings, she often served as the heart of her family, known for her vibrant personality and unwavering spirit. She attended Carter High School, where she excelled academically and began to cultivate a life filled with compassion and kindness toward others. It was during her formative years at Pine Valley Baptist Church that Bobbie Jean accepted Christ into her heart, making her faith a cornerstone of her life.

Known for her warmth and nurturing nature, Bobbie Jean's love for cooking and gardening was legendary among her family and friends. She poured her heart into preparing delicious meals, creating an environment of love and care. Her garden, a vibrant tapestry of flowers, was lovingly tended, providing not just sustenance but also beauty and joy. Baking for her grandchildren brought her immense happiness; each flour-dusted countertop and sweet-smelling oven became a space filled with laughter and love, filling her home with warmth.

Bobbie Jean was a devoted wife to her late husband, Edgar C. Lynn Jr., whom she married in a ceremony filled with love and surrounded by their closest friends and family. Their love story was one of deep connection and partnership, marked by countless adventures and shared dreams. The memories of their unwavering bond serve as a testament to the strength and resilience they cultivated together through the years.

On April 15, 2025, God called this faithful servant home, welcoming her into eternal peace with Christ our Lord. In that moment, she was reunited with her beloved parents, her siblings, and her middle son, a reunion that brought joy to her spirit and solace to ours. Although we grieve her loss, we take comfort in knowing that she rests in eternal joy.

Bobbie Jean leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and cherished memories that will endure through the generations. Her spirit will live on in her three sons: Gregory Tyrone Riley (Constance) of Jackson, MS, James Donji Harris of Pearl, MS, and Marcus Lynn Riley (Vanessa) of Brandon, MS. Each son carries a piece of her love and strength within them, along with the invaluable lessons she imparted. She is also survived by five adored grandchildren-Gregory, Andrew, Allison, Alex, and Gregory Lee Riley-whose lives she enriched with her affection and guidance. Additionally, she embraced two bonus daughters, Jeanette Davis (Marvin) and Cassandra Allison (Ronnie), pouring her heart into loving them as her own, along with five great-grandchildren who will carry her legacy forward and lastly her childhood best friend Clairia Williams.

Moreover, Bobbie Jean is lovingly remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends whose lives were richly blessed by knowing her. Each person carries memories of her kindness, laughter, and the countless ways she touched their lives.

As we reflect on Bobbie Jean's beautiful life, let us find comfort in the love she shared so freely and in the many memories we hold dear, knowing her spirit continues to inspire us all.
