

Mrs. Bobbie Nell Norwood

April 5, 1952 - September 28, 2024

Mrs. Bobbie Nell Palmer Norwood was born on April 5th, 1952 in Brandon, Mississippi to the late Anslem Joseph Palmer and Annie Mae Palmer. She had 10 siblings. Preceding her in death is one brother, Thomas James Palmer and sister Dorothy Jean Smith.

Bobbie graduated from the former Carter High in 1970 and was a member of the first ever Carter High School Marching Band where she played the flute. She was a member of the True Vine Missionary Baptist Church and was a member of the True Vine Choir for many years.

She worked many jobs in her lifetime, most notably for Milwaukee Tools and the Rankin County Juvenile Justice System until her retirement. As a member of the Justice Team, Bobby was instrumental in providing guidance and advice to the juveniles looking for a path to a successful life.

A kind, caring person always concerned for others, Bobby always took the time to call or visit others who were sick, hospitalized or unable to get out into the community. She leaves behind a legacy of respect for others and treating others with compassion and kindness. There are so many stories shared and many left behind.

Bobby leaves behind a wonderful and devoted husband, Mr. Jimmy Norwood, and one daughter LaBridgette Palmer of Rochester New York and two bonus daughters Tonya Norwood from Jackson, MS, Sonya Norwood of Richland, and one bonus granddaughter Chrishuna Norwood and three bonus grandsons, Maliki Ducksworth, Davion Griggs and Kaiden Curb, two sisters, Annie Louise Palmer and Carolyn Palmer, six brothers, Carnell Palmer (Queenie), A.J. “ I'll always cherish the memories of Ms.Bobbie complimenting how good my perfume smelled when I would do her dialysis assessment at the beginning of treatments . Even if I wasn't assigned in her section I would always take the time to go to her dialysis chair and lean over just so she could take a whiff. I'll miss you Ms. Bobbie , I love you and will always cherish those memories.
