

Mr. Bradley Lee Chambers

November 28, 1990 - December 8, 2022

Bradley Lee Chambers, a man who loved God, cherished his family and worked by the "sweet of his brow."

He was born November 28, 1990 at Baptist Hospital in Jackson, MS to Earnestine Chambers and the late Reverend Eugene Chambers of Pearl, MS.

Influenced by his father who was a Pastor of Mt. Helm Missionary Baptist Church in Brandon, MS. Bradley accepted Christ as his personal Savior early in life. With a genuine love for God, he joined Sweet Rest Church of Christ Holiness USA in Pearl, MS, where he was a faithful member until the day God called him home on December 8, 2022.

Bradley attended elementary through high school at Pearl Public Schools District in Pearl, MS. He was active in sports: basketball, football, track and field. After graduating from Pearl High School in May of 2009, Bradley attended Jackson State University. A few years later, he became an entrepreneur passionate about painting homes which led to him opening his own business, BC's Painting LLC.

Bradley leaves to cherish his memories; three children: Jon Bailey, Breah Chambers of Clinton, MS and Christian Chambers of Pearl, MS. His siblings: Vanessa Beale (Larry/Bookie) of Memphis, TN, Eugene Chambers Jr. of Pearl, MS and Darell Chambers (Brittany) of Jackson, MS. He also leaves one nephew, Isaac Horton of Jackson, MS, one niece Kaylin Buchanan of Memphis, TN and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
