

Ms. Brenda Gail Coleman

March 5, 1957 - December 17, 2022

Brenda Gail Coleman Hayes was the second born to Mr. Louin Veron and Nadean (Russon) Coleman and began her life on March 5, 1957 in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. She grew up in the Langford Community.

She joined the Truevine Missionary Baptist Church of Brandon, Mississippi at an early age.

Brenda received her education at Carter High School but later transferred to Brandon High School.

She also attended several classes at Hinds Community College.

She became united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Jessie James Washington and to this union, four sons were born. Later in life, she later married Ruben Hayes.

Brenda was a jack of all trades and no job was too big or too small for her. She worked in the nursing field and also possessed the ability to remodel which included building her own shed. Among her plethora of occupational services, Brenda was taxi driver, commercial (18-wheeler) driver and pilot car driver.

Because of her love for traveling from state to state, she purchased her own truck and started her own business known as Coleman Pilot Car Services.

She lived in several states which include Mississippi, Wisconsin, California, Tennessee and Mexico.

She resided in Jamesville, Wisconsin when the angels called her home.

Brenda Gail was a very gifted singer and songwriter. She was in the process of releasing some new music before her transition.

To forever cherish her memories and mourn her eternal spirit are her sons, Jerry Dwayne Coleman (Shemeka), Antonio Roshun Washington (Lashenda) and, Marco Antwon Washington (Elizabeth); her mother Ms. Nadean Smith; sisters, Rose Coleman Evans, Geraldine Coleman, Linda Smith Brown (Baily); brothers Willie Smith and Ray Charles Smith (Elizabeth), seventeen grandchildren; five great grandchildren; one special aunt, Eunice Spann; her longtime special friend Eric Richardson and a host of nieces nephews and friends.

Three brothers preceded her in death.
