

Mr. Bryson Horne Wash

November 24, 2003 - April 23, 2024

Bryson Cortez Horne-Wash was born at Central Mississippi Medical Center on November 24, 2003, and was the oldest of five children. As a child, Bryson had a smile that almost never left his face. No matter what he was doing, Bryson always had a loving, kind, and humble spirit that you could feel in his presence. At a very young age Bryson showed interest in sports and developed a passion for basketball, football, and track. He was relentless in his efforts and received numerous awards and certificates for his hard work. In his teenage years, he enjoyed playing sports, spending time with his friends and family, and doing lawn work with different companies. Bryson graduated from Northwest Rankin High School with the Class of 2023.

Bryson is the father of Za'Riyah, his beloved daughter, whom he loved wholeheartedly.

Bryson leaves to cherish his loving smile - his mom and dad, his sisters, Aniya and Dylenn, his brother, Chance, his daughter, Za'Riyah, her mom, Jasmine. Bryson is preceded in death by his brother, Cameron Horne.

“Bryson, forever in my heart☐ I thank God everyday for all the wonderful memories my family and I have with you to hold on to. I miss you so much!! I know your beautiful smile is bigger than ever now that you are with Jesus and I am certain your team is winning bc you're catching all those footballs on that Big Big yard! I pray you really knew how much I loved you! ☐
