

Ms. Cambria Deonna Moore

July 4, 1971 - March 13, 2024

Cambria Deonna Moore was born on July 4, 1971, to the late John and Delores Moore. Cambria, lovingly known as "Dee" was the youngest of six children born to this union.

Dee was preceded in death by her parents, brother John Lester Moore, Jr., and sister Charitta Ann Moore.

Dee was baptized at an early age at Sandhill Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend N.C. Taylor. She was a graduate of Brandon High School and attended Jackson State University.

On August 24, 2004, Dee gave birth to the light of her life, Rhyan Andrew Dyson. She loved being a mother and took great pride in her son. Dee loved entertaining and cooking for family and friends. She would often be heard saying... "It's two things that I can do, and one is fry chicken wings". When Dee was in good health, planning and preparing family, holiday and Sunday dinners was a top priority. She loved to have a good time and was known as the life of the party; Dee loved her family, and will forever be remembered for her bubbly personality, radiant smile and joy for life.

Dee leaves to cherish her life: a loving son, Rhyan; siblings, Willie "Ted", Katherine "Kat", Cassandra "Sandy", Aubrey "Ubbie" and Kevin (Tina): a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and her dear friends, Lou, Kecia and Snow.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Sandy and the family. You are at the heart of our prayers right now. Some for comfort, others for strength, and still others for quiet moments when you feel God right there with you...moments when nothing can come between you and His reassuring love. God knows and He cares.
