

Ms. Carla Dannette Price

September 11, 1964 - February 27, 2021

Carla Danette Williams Price was born on September 11, 1964 in Jackson, Mississippi. Carla is survived by her mother Christine Crosby.

Carla was raised and educated in Collins, Mississippi. She graduated from Collins High School in 1982. She earned a degree in medical billing and coding from Antonelli College. Carla worked various jobs but found her passion in health care, including a brief stint at BlueCross/BlueShield of Illinois in Chicago. Because of her commitment to excellence, she received recognition for outstanding customer service during the short time that she worked for the health insurance company. Her most recent employment was with the Mississippi Department of Corrections where she was a Correctional Guard until she became disabled and unable to continue working.

Carla was a devoted mother to her two sons: LeChung and Romeario and her step-daughter Syrenthia "Ren". She was known for her kind ways, her faithfulness, and her humbleness. She was family oriented and was considered the "best babysitter" by her niece, nephews, and cousins. She was trusted to care for children by her family members.

Carla committed her life to the Lord at an early age at Sylvarena M.B. Church (Johns, MS) and Macedonia M.B. Church (Collins, MS). She remained faithful throughout her lifetime.

She leaves to mourn her mother, Christine Crosby. Her sons: LeChung Williams and Romeario Williams and her step-daughter Syrenthia Robinson. She also leaves to mourn her special friend Homer Turner; her sisters Terri Sikorski, Zenja Crosby, and Angela Crosby. Carla was a cherished cousin and more like a sister to Thomas Earl Williams, Deannie Williams and Cynthia Williams. She was a caring niece, cousin, and friend to many.

Carla is preceded in death by her grandparents Lorea Williams and Henry Lesell Williams and her aunt Willie Mae Williams whom she lived with for many years.

“ I am missing you so much. My house is not the same without you being here in it. I left for work yesterday March 3rd, and when i got ready to walk out the door it took all I had in me not to say “I am gone and I will see you tomorrow”. Lord it is going to be hard my niece/daughter want be with me anymore. No more watching crazy/weird shows together, no more crazy/funny conversation. That is all gone. I enjoyed it and I have to pray and ask God to give me strength to overcome the loss because it Is hard. You suffered a lot, I want forget the time I stood by your bedside all day as you was in pain and nothing the doctors gave you helped. I stood there and cried and prayed to God to just ease your pain. Now you are pain free and resting. I truly will miss you but I will think of the fun times we had together.

“ 🥹🤔 The night I received the call I felt a piece of me break all over again. To know you was to love you. You were my cousin, but it felt more like an auntie. You always kept us laughing with your stories. You were always there. Especially back when grandma and mama needed a babysitter. Even when had your apartment you watch me some days if my had had some errands to run. I'll never forget that Motorola Razr flip phone that you used to have. The ringtone was Love and Happiness from Madea's Family Reunion. We song it each time it rung. I'm going to miss you my dear... Until we meet again in the great by and by 🤔🥹

“ Carla was like the big sister I never had. I looked forward to hearing her funny stories on Sundays and at family gatherings. She was our personal news anchor...we were always up to date with local and national happenings!! She was our personal shopper---hair products, hairstyles, clothes, shoes.....practically everything. Although she didn't feel well to attend all family functions, when she did show up, we knew we would get a good laugh. I will forever cherish the time we shared and the memories we made!!!

“ It was such a joy to grow up with a person as loving, caring and genuine as you were. We will miss your physical presence at family functions but your spirit will remain in our presence. We will miss laughing at your strange/weird stories of all the people you have come in contact with from the “other” side. You are now resting with those people. ”
