Carol obtained her secondary education at Pearl High School. She earned a High school diploma.

Sister Carol accepted Christ at an early age and joined Mt. Elam Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late 'Reverend 'R, L. T. Smith. She was a faithful member until her health failed. She loved her church family and took pride in saying that she was a member of Mount Elam.

She dedicated her life to making other people happy. She helped with caring for her grandson Deric Garner Jr. a.k.a. "Bug". She enjoyed spoiling and loving him. She also enjoyed talking about old times. She will be remembered by her daughter, nieces, and nephews for the precious times shared and the earlier trips to the Mississippi State Fair, Jackson Zoo, and movies. She also enjoyed watching movies with her son-in-law.

Prayers for Felicia and our family. I'm going to miss you from fussing at me about my health or helping me up from falling down! You were the one cousin who came to visit me in Madison and I truly appreciated/you then and now! RIP
