“ To the Marshall family we offer the most sincere condolences to your family as you all prepare to say good bye to Cathy's earthly being. Always remember she will live on forever in your heart, although you can't see her you can feel her present at times. Just know she is not in any pain and not hooked up to any machines any more. We will never be ready for our love one to leave us but God knows what best for them. This is one journey she had to make along as we will all have to do one day. I know in your hearts you were all loved and you will miss her, given time God will ease the pain so you can bear it. Always reach out to your family if you want to cry or just ask "why our mother?"
Lean on each other and God for comfort, and one day you will meet her again.
