

Chance Sentell Walker

October 19, 2018 - August 16, 2020

On October 19, 2018 at approximately 11:57 AM, the heavens opened and blessed Travis and Lakeisha Fairley Walker with a precious son named Chance Sentell Walker. Born with Epidermolysis Bullosa (EB), Chance was soon affectionately known as "The Champ" as a result of him continually fighting for his life since birth. His rare genetic condition resulted in the painful blistering of the skin and mucous membranes. Many trips to expert health care providers in Cincinnati, Ohio were made to ensure "The Champ" was receiving the best possible care. Chance was always a joyful, peaceful young lad with a gigantic personality who rarely displayed sadness despite of his complaint. He never met strangers, loved entertainment, church services, the outdoors and a variety of music. His favorite songs were "Heaven" by Sir the Baptist and "I Do Worship" by John Pee Kee. This Pilgrim Rest Missionary Church Baby was Christened in the early months of his life and loved to give God the highest praise by saying "Hallelujah!". He also knew the sound of the pastor's voice and became attentive when he heard it on Sunday mornings. Additively, he was also fascinated by watching his father praise God in the dance through mime ministry. On August 16, 2020 at 3:59 PM, Chance accepted his one way ticket to a city called Heaven.

Chance "The Champ" leaves to cherish his precious little memories, his loving and devoted parents, Travis and Lakeisha Walker of Pearl, Mississippi; grandparents, Roy and Nell Fairley of Pelahatchie, Mississippi, Roy and Twanda Green, Anthony Harvey, all of Brandon, Mississippi; four (4) aunts,

Shirley McGee and Patricia (Prentiss) Wilson of Pelahatchie, Mississippi, Keyanna (Kenneth) Austin, MaJoy Easterling and one (1) uncle, Kenneth Demus of Brandon, Mississippi; four (4) great aunts, Lawanda (Johnny Ray) Morgan of Pearl, Mississippi, Lashonda Taylor, Beverly Demus and Gwen Kelly, all of Brandon, Mississippi; great grandparents, Easter Mae McGee of Pelahatchie, Mississippi, John H. and Ruby Walker of Brandon, Mississippi; and one (1) great uncle, Malcolm (Jessica) Harvey, Sr. of Brandon, Mississippi; four (4) great great aunts, Ruby Gaye Magee, Mattie Allen, Shirley Jenkins, and Bobbie (Sammie) Harvey. He also leaves two special friends Heather Thornton of Greenville, Mississippi and Elijah "Scooter" Sutton along with a host of other family and friends. His uncle Darryl Walker, Sr., great grandmother Temoria Harvey, great grand fathers Jimmy Harvey and Virgil McGee and cousin Patrick Wilson preceded him in death. Chance will truly be missed and remembered in the hearts of many for eternity.
