

Mr. Charlie Ray Randle

July 15, 1961 - April 26, 2026

Deacon Charlie Randle was born on July 15, 1967, to the late Charlie Randle Jr. and Jessie Ree Potter of Jackson, Mississippi. He united with Christian Fellowship M.B. Church and was a loyal, faithful member. He exemplified his love and dedication as he served in many capacities, such as Deacon, Trustee, Sunday School Superintendent, male choir, and member of the Church Brotherhood.

Deacon Randle was educated at Provine High School and Hinds Community College. Because of his mathematical and arithmetical prowess, he retained an appointment with Airgas Incorporated as a supervisor, where he retired in December 2024.

Deacon Randle was passionate about family, church, grilling, sports, watching his favorite television shows, and was the epitome of a true Dallas Cowboys fan.

He united in holy matrimony with Mrs. Joyce Randle on September 29, 1990. To this union one child was born.

Deacon Randle departed this life on April, 26, 2026, at 7:53 P.M. at Brandon Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Brandon, MS. His parents preceded him in death: Charlie Randle Jr. and Jessie Reel Potter. He leaves to cherish his memories his wife Mrs. Joyce Randle one daughter, Lainette Johnson (Florence MS); a special father figure. Mr. Lawrence Potter; three sisters, Dorothy (Charles), Debbie, Danier (Walter), and Tara (all of Jackson, MS); five brothers, Carl, Chris, and (Nehema), David (all of Jackson, MS) and Dr. Lawrence Potter, Jr. (Nashville, TN); one grandchild, Jalyn; and a host of sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends. They will continue to cherish "Charlie Ray's" memory.
