

Mr. Clyde D. Irvin

September 28, 1939 - May 17, 2021

Clyde David Irvin was born September 28, 1939 in Pelahatchie, MS to Mr. and Mrs. J.W. and Ruby K. Irvin who both preceded him in death,

Clyde accepted Christ at an early age, he attended Elementary, Jr. High and High School in Pelahatchie, MS.

Clyde affectionately known as Sonnie and well loved by many was born the fourth child of five children. Three of which who preceded him in death: Minnie (Polly) McLaurin (Brown), Helen (Black girl) Davis, John Irvin (Margaret).

Sonnie worked many jobs, but found his passion, as a Tractor Trailer Tire Repairman for over 30 years at B&R Repair Service.

Sonnie was full of life, laughter and definitely love. If you really knew Clyde, you knew he couldn't be still always a fast mover and on the go. Sonnie best hobby was playing the lottery, buying scratch offs and always betting horses at the race track with a lucky TKI feat number. Boy how he love that race track but his biggest hobby was the love for his family.

Clyde leaves to cherish his wife: Diana, his one sister: Dorothy (Dot) Tucker (Verdis), his daughters: Lisa (LaFrance), Belinda (Lin) (Richard), Courtney (Ralph), Vicki, Chandra(Kenon), Shira (James) and one son Michael Lester

(Regina). Thirty one grandkids and twenty nine great grandkids and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
