“ Craig has touched so many lives whether he was aware of that or not.
He was so kind to every one he met and the hardest working man. I lived in Florence for several years. He knew what kind of car I drove and he would wave every time I passed by. I know he would wave at other people as well. Always in the garden during the spring and summer months. So many of us are not ready to see him go but I believe the good Lord has prepared a place for him. He has called him to his eternal home of rest and peace. He will be greatly missed. Craig's wife and extended family are in my prayers.
