

Mr. Cuellar V. McAfee

September 13, 1979 - February 12, 2023

Cuellar (Quay) Villechaize McAfee was born on September 13, 1979, in Elk Grove, Illinois to Evelyn McAfee and Perry Miller, who preceded him in death.

At an early age, Quay was baptized at Pearlie Grove M. B. Church, Brandon, MS. Quay rededicated and surrendered his life to Christ in November 2022, at House to House Baptist Church, Pearl, Ms, under the leadership of Pastor W. C. Horton. Quay graduated from Brandon High School and attended Hinds Community College. He played football competitively, both in high school and college. He soon met the love of his life, Mary Telesa and they married on October 7, 2007. From that union a son, Michael and a daughter, Leah were born.

Quay was passionate about music. He listened to eclectic genres of music and loved to sing. He was part of a local band where he was the lead vocalist. Before his illness, Quay was a car salesman for many years. He consistently earned the top salesperson title in his region, winning many awards and accolades. Quay would often say "I am selling cars like candy bars!" He had a great sense of humor and loved to crack jokes and make others laugh. At who knew him described him as funny, a good listener, wonderful friend and above all, a good person!

He leaves to mourn his passing a loving wife, Mary Telesa McAfee and two children, Michael and Leah; mother, Evelyn Harper Young; two brothers, Milton Harper (Victoria Hollin) of Longview, Texas and Keith Woodruff of Canton Mississippi; two sisters, Angelica Harper of Brandon, MS and Melissa Miller of Hattiesburg, MS; 3 beloved nieces, Shamontez Lacey of Jackson, MS, Adaree Harper of Marshall, Texas and Mela Ali of Hattiesburg, MS; two nephews, Demond Collins and Zihenryon Perry of Jackson, Mississippi, a loving mother-in-law, Alma Brown; three aunts, Veria Miller of New York, NY; Bettie Paige of Addison, IL; Barbara Kendricks of Ridgeland, MS; two uncles, Reverend Curtis McAfee of Brandon, MS; Landrus Miller of Jackson, MS and a host of cousins and friends.
