

Mr. Curtis Shoto

January 10, 1961 - February 22, 2024

Mr. Curtis Shoto, known to many as "BoBo" was born on January 10, 1961, to Robert St. and Annie Louise Shoto. He was the eighth child of thirteen children. Both of his parents, two sisters Dorothy Louise Shoto, Dorothy Ann Shabazz. and one brother Roger Shoto preceded him in death.

Curtis grew up in Pearl, Mississippi and attended school at both Carter High and Pearl Public School.

Curtis had no children of his own, however, he loved, laughed and joked with his sisters and brothers' children, as if they were his own. He loved to help with any all things that were to happen, (Cooking, Yardwork, Watchful eye) with his sisters and brothers. Earlier in life before the passing of his father, he loved to fish and work with him. His early morning coffee, cooking, and conversations will forever be missed.

The memories made with our beloved "BoBo" will be cherished within many hearts. He leaves a legacy, in the lives of his family: Three sisters, Deloris (Silas) Jenkins, Mary L. Mason, Tammy D. Shoto: Six brothers Robert (Ezella) Shoto Jr., Authur E. (Chong) Shoto, Willie E. (Linda) Shoto, Stephenton (Carol) Shoto, Eric Shoto, Reginald (Tanika) Shoto, a good and special friend Mr. Edward Brown, a special nephew Clarence Lloyd and a host of nieces and nephews
