

Ms. Cynthia Annette Haslett

July 26, 1969 - March 2, 2018

God called an angel of grace and mercy on Friday, March 2, 2018 at 3:18 p.m. to claim the precious soul of our beloved Cynthia Annette Haslett.

The Lord sent a special blessing to Fannie Ruth Haslett and John Milton Haslett on July 26, 1969. A precious daughter named Cynthia.

Cynthia was the enthusiastic and outgoing sister of Lynette, Genette, Undara, and Clarence. She was the granddaughter of the late Ruth "Mandy" and Horace Minor. She was always the bright light of her family.

She graduated in 1989 from Brandon High School where she was greatly admired and loved by her classmates.

Cynthia's love for Christ was demonstrated through her love for the Church, for Children, her Community, and her Career.

Cynthia leaves many to mourn her loss and to celebrate the blessings she brought to their lives.

“ Wow, no words in the dictionary can describe Cynthia's earthly life. Cynthia a unique person touched lives. She was the same every time we talked. Thank the Lord for his grace. Salvation most of all love. The Lord shared Cynthia with us to brighten lives and be a good shepherd. Thank you Lord for all many blessings. Cynthia's earthly presence will be miss but she gained her eternal wings to be the Lord. Cynthia memories and legacy will live on with us. I love my family. The Carr and Mckinney Family, Vaiden, MS share the grief.
