“ Dallas will truly be missed by the Rhodes, Seward, Andrews family. He was a part of our family that was always wanting to cook something. At holidays we always knew that he was gonna cook pulled pork, a fried turkey and occasionally chitterlings. I cooked some for us last year and it's in the freezer & we never got to eat it. We depended on him to fix things around the house, now we'll have to do it ourselves. When our dog passed last year, he was so concerned that he started looking out for us another dog, even though I kept telling him we weren't ready, he kept looking and was gonna get one & leave on porch. Dallas taught Zion how to fish and was looking forward to teaching Ayden. Dallas you will be missed but we'll all see you on the other side.
