

Ms. Dorothy Dell Lewis

March 6, 1941 - March 26, 2025

Sister Dorothy Lewis was born to the late James and Ethel Jones Anderson on March 6, 1941. She married Sidney Lee Hobson and within that union two children were born, Sidney (Shawn) Hobson and Shelia Cuvette Hobson. Later years she married Curis Lee Lewis. They all preceded Dorothy in death.

Dorothy was raised Methodist, when she married became Baptist. Then on April 4, 1999, she attended an apostolic gathering at Greater Bethlehem Church under the leadership of Bishop Philip Coleman. She was baptized in the name of Jesus and filled with the Holy Ghost on May 3, 1999. Her life hadn't been the same since Bishop Coleman passed. Then she was stewarded under the leadership of Bishop Robert N. Fortson Sr. She enjoyed teaching and leadership; she served in the Store House Ministry and the 55 Alive Ministry. She was very happy being in fellowship at Greater Bethlehem Church. She loved her Pastor's first lady, all the church family and everyone else. She was thankful and praised God for being saved.

Sister Dorothy Lewis transitioned from this life on March 26, 2025 at her home located in Brandon, Mississippi. She left this side of heaven with a message: "My life has been so blessed if I didn't have Jesus I wouldn't want to live!"

Dorothy is survived by Ebony Marie Johnson- daughter and four grands:

Velma Davis (Rialto, CA); Thelma Mayers (Richland, MS); Rosie Walker (Brandon, MS); Charlene (Michael) Hill (Olive Branch, MS); three brothers: Alfred (Christine) Anderson (Rochester, NY); Curtis Anderson (Brandon, MS).
