

Mr. Earnest E. Myers Jr.

June 19, 1990 - August 19, 2019

Mr. Earnest Emmanuel Myers, affectionately known as, "Man" or "Little Earnest", was born June 19, 1990 in Jackson Mississippi to the parents of Earnest Myers and Sharon (Stapleton) Myers. He departed this world August 19, 2019. Earnest was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Ora Nell Travis, his paternal grandfather, Sam Myers and his paternal uncle, Donald Myers. Earnest was raised in Brandon Mississippi in the Ponderosa community. He was baptized at Sweet Home Church of Christ Holiness USA in Pearl, Mississippi. Earnest attended Brandon High School and later went to Job Corp where he completed his GED. Earnest recently started working for Air-gas where he was loved by his co-workers. Earnest enjoyed his vast community of friends and spending time playing basketball. He also enjoyed spending time with his family, most importantly the holidays particularly Christmas. His most precious and favorite activity was spending time with his son, Ethan Jayce, whom he loved dearly. Earnest lived life to the fullest and he overcame many obstacles in his short life. Earnest was a devoted father, son, brother, uncle, nephew and friend.

He leaves to cherish and celebrate his memory: Ethan Jayce of Brandon Mississippi, his mother Sharon Myers of Pearl, Mississippi, Earnest Myers of Brandon Mississippi, his brother Darryl Stapleton of Pearl, Mississippi, his sister Adrian Keys (Jamal) of Collins Mississippi, Grandmother Mary Myers of Brandon Mississippi, Great-Grandmother Loree Stapleton of Magee

Mississippi, a special friend Ms. Paige Ritz of Jackson Mississippi and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
