

Mr. Eddie Joe Whitfield, Sr.

February 10, 1950 - January 18, 2025

Eddie Joe was born on February 10, 1950, in Yazoo City, Yazoo, Mississippi to Edna Mae and B.C.

Whitfield, Sr. Later in life, Edna remarried Reverend E.W. Williams, who raised Eddie and his siblings as his own. Eddie was the third of four children. Eddie's parents and siblings, Julius Jones and B.C. Whitfield, Jr., preceded him in death.

A proud graduate of McCall High School in Pelahatchie, Mississippi, Eddie was known for his involvement in basketball. He became a member of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church at an early age. Eddie will be truly missed by his family and friends.

Eddie leaves behind five sons: Reginald, Eddie Joe, Jr., and Roderick Whitfield, all of Pelahatchie, Mississippi; Eric Harvey of Jackson, Mississippi; and Mytaius Whitfield of Washington, D.C. He also leaves behind a special daughter, Tameika Spearman (Michael) of Dallas, Texas; one sister, Ida Jones of Pelahatchie, Mississippi; his god-daughter Angela "Angie Pooh" Gardner (Lee Joe) of Pelahatchie, Mississippi, four special brothers: J.C. Johnson, Joe, Allen, and Bob Robinson, all of Pelahatchie; and two special sisters: Ann Brock of Mendenhall, Mississippi, and Mashel Weakley of Pelahatchie.

Additionally, Eddie is survived by his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends. Eddie Joe was lovingly cared for by his favorite niece, Yolanda Jones, until his passing.

“ Mr. Whitfield was very special to us in clinic. He always made me laugh. Even when he was suffering some serious health issues, he used humor to bring a smile to each of our faces. I remember one particular visit he shared with me that he was so grateful to live long enough to develop a real relationship with Jesus. He said, "I didn't always live a good life when I was a younger man ... but the Lord was patient with me." I will always remember that testimony and our special friendship. I will miss our visits.
