“ Frantz came to Mercer University my first year as an RA. He was loud. He was sassy. He was Southern charm and exuberance. I will miss his big personality and helpful nature. I'm proud to have known him, and I'm sad that more people won't have the chance to get to know him. The picture I have attached is from (I believe) March 2015. Mercer always took students to Asheville, NC for our conference's basketball tournament, and Frantz, of course, volunteered every year as an ambassador. The photo was taken during lunch at Pack's Tavern. I remember that he got an Arnold Palmer and the most dressed burger on the menu, as Frantz never did anything less than large. This was a good day. The four of us had this lunch, we explored Asheville, and had a great time! I'm thankful for the three years I had learning from Frantz and getting to know him. I will miss him dearly, and I am praying for his family in this difficult time.

“ I enjoyed knowing Frantz in the Chancel Choir of First Baptist Church of Christ while he was at Mercer. His love of music and warm friendliness were easy to see on his smiling face. He will surely be missed. I'm glad we got to sing together. Sharon Bailey
