

Mr. Garry Lee Hicks

June 8, 1961 - February 18, 2022

Please, no sad hearts, no hung down heads. Don't weep for me for I am not dead. I have another house you know, where only God's redeemed can go.

Garry Lee Hicks was born the first of two children to the late Oscar Lee Hicks and Betty Jean Coleman Hicks on June 8, 1961, in Rankin County, Mississippi.

His education started at the Mount Elam Sandhill Center. He attended Carter High School until the 7th grade. Garry was a 1979 graduate of Florence High School. He received an Associate degree in Electronics Engineering Technology from Phillips College in 1981.

He confessed Christ at an early age, and became a member of the Sandhill Missionary Baptist Church in Brandon, Mississippi.

He was employed by MS Valley Gas for 5 years. Garry was currently employed at Siemens for 37 years, where he was recently promoted as a Experimental Machinist.

He entered peacefully into the Master's Joy on Friday, February 18, 2022.

Garry loved to ride horses. He was a member of the Rankin County Road

Riders. He won numerous trophies for pacing and single footing. His passion was raising cattle. He also loved to hunt, fish, ride ATV's, and play cards. He was an all time fan of the San Francisco 49ers. As a yearly event, he would attend Cruisin' the Coast with family and friends.

His daughter: Dedra La'Toya Hicks; father: Oscar Lee Hicks; grandparents: Willie (Big Daddy) Coleman, Sr and Florean (Big Mama) Purvis Coleman; Artrolus Hicks and Jessie Mae Davis Hicks preceded him in death.

Garry loved his family. He was a devoted husband, father, son, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. He leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his memories, wife: Carnette Taylor Hicks; two daughters: Le'Sondra A. Hicks of Dallas, TX and Kayla M. Hicks of Houston, TX; mother, Betty Jean Hicks of Pearl, MS; brother: Willie James Hicks of Pearl, MS; two Godsons: Redrick Coleman of Pearl, MS and Aaron Cannon of Florence, MS and a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who lives were all touched by Garry Lee Hicks.

“ Gary was my first cousin and even though we did not talk on the phone nor see each other often he was still apart of me. I can remember when I would take his food from big momma house while they were at school I would see the bus at the top of the hill and run back down to daddy’s house Gary knew I was the worse however he never told big momma I would take the food we let willie Jame take the wrap we are cousins for life I’m so sorry your time was cut short you will now join your father, big momma, big daddy, your daughter, All three of your uncles RJ, Tunky and uncle Redd rest easy until we meet again you will be missed.
