

Mrs. Glenda G. Fairley

May 19, 1955 - October 8, 2020

Mrs. Glenda Gayle Beauchamp-Fairley passed away on Thursday, October 8, 2020. She was born to the late Sam and Annie Pearl Beauchamp on May 19, 1955. She is preceded in death by her sister Priscilla Johnson and her brothers Jackie and Patrick Beauchamp.

A loving mother and wife, a devout Christian, a loyal friend and confidant, Gayle loved to cook and enjoyed creating fellowship with her family and friends. She married the late Ray Charles Fairley, Jr in 2019, and they lived together in Puckett, MS. She is survived by two sons: Wil Walker, Jr (Jackson, MS) and Louis D Walker (Newport News, VA), his wife Kim Walker and their son Gabriel M Walker. She is also survived by her siblings Sam Beauchamp, Jr (Mendenhall, MS), Alice Francis Beauchamp (Jackson, MS), Terry Wayne Beauchamp (Brandon, MS), and Janice Denise Brown (Jackson, MS). She also leaves behind many nieces, nephews and friends.

Apart from her faith, Gayle valued nothing more than family and friends. She was immensely proud of them and leaves behind nothing but precious memories. Until her health made it impossible, nothing could make her smile more than being surrounded by those that loved her most.

Gayle's life was a living testimony of one of her favorite bible verses, Ephesians 4:32- "Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you."

Glenda was my friend who I loved. She moved away when we were on the second grade at McCall High School in Pelahatchie, MS. 50 years later I walk into my Grandson Elijah's 4th grade classroom I hear her voice calls her name she turns around and say Patsy. There stood my childhood friend I thought i would never see again. Thrte we are two little girls who had grew up to become woman of God with a desire to service God and his people.
