“ My dear friend and co-worker, Mr. Glenn will truly be missed. It is taking some time to come to the reality that I will no longer see you at work and through online meetings. You have made a forever impact in my life, and my career in the Information Technology at the Supreme Court. Our work events and gatherings will never be the same.

My husband, Reverend Craig Baxton Sr., and I will miss seeing you and Mrs. Emma at the many church events you graciously setup and took pictures, creating memories for all who attended.

*I can truly say that you lived life to its fullest!
Rest in God's care of your eternal home my dear friend, co-worker, and mentor.*

*Mr Glenn was a gentleman until the very end. This picture was taken on the 21st birthday of Alaric, his grandson. His vision of helping kids in Kenya and other parts of Africa enamored me to him. He was a gem of a gentleman and a humanitarian. He will be sorely missed by many.

“ Sympathy and condolences to the Anderson Family. Glenn W. Anderson was my employer, my friend, and my brother. It was 1977 I met him and the rest is history. He always treated me as a little brother. Although he may not be with us here on earth he will never be forgotten, that because he was who God created him to be. A caring person to all who crossed his path. Rest well my brother. Family Scripture says, "weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning".

“ Condolences and prayers to the Anderson family. Thanks for all the memories from photos to conversations you were on your "A" game, and you did all things well. Traveling was your gift to yourself and you always took us along for the ride. I will miss you, but I know for certain the journey continues. And now you can rest from your labor down here. Gone from time into eternity dear nephew, cousin, and friend but never forgotten. Always in our hearts. Aunt Georgia Stapleton & Family.
