

Ms. Gloria Ann Green

August 7, 1962 - August 2, 2022

Ms. Gloria Green was a loving woman, a nurturing mother, a great friend, a supportive sibling, an exceptional aunt, and a matriarch to so many others that had the pleasure of knowing her.

The youngest of six children of her proud parents, Willie J. Carson and Louise Gore, Gloria was truly cherished and loved. She was born in Sandhill, Mississippi, and educated in the public school system at Pisgah in Rankin County. Ms. Green was known for her food, fashion, and love for family. She devoted her life at an early age to Christ and was a member of Lee's Chapel M.B. Church in Lena, MS until she departed this Earthly life.

Gloria was a doting mother of six children and an even more loving grandmother of 9, and a great-grandmother of one.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Willie J. Carson and Louise Gore. Her brothers, Paul S. Carson, Willie G. Carson, Solomon Carson, Isaiah Carson, one sister, Lessie I. Carson, and her son, Shermon D. Chaffee, Jr., also preceded her in death.

Gloria leaves to cherish her memory her sister, Mary Batte (Sandhill, MS), her five daughters, Niesha Carson (Sandhill, MS), Yvonne Chaffee Ridgeland, MS), Sonya Chaffee (Flowood, MS), Constance Chaffee (Sandhill, MS), and Adreanna Chambliss (Jackson, MS), nine grandchildren, one great-grandchild, two uncles, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
