

Mrs. Henri Ola Rogers

January 26, 1932 - December 22, 2022

Henri Ola Trotter Rogers was born on January 26, 1932 to the late Beulah & Matt Trotter in Walnut Grove, Mississippi. She confessed Christ at an early age.

Henri Ola was preceded in death by eight siblings, Mrs. Mary Reed (John), Ms. Clementine Turner, Mr. Matt Trotter, Jr. (Daisy), Mr. Johnnie P. Trotter (Mamie), Mr. James Turner (Brenda), Mr. Jessie Turner (Pearl), Mr. John R. Trotter and Mr. Raymond Turner.

She was united Holy Matrimony to the late Freeman Rogers, Sr. The couple was blessed with two loving children. Henri Ola and her babies relocated to Pearl, Mississippi after his death. Henri Ola and the late Bobby Tangle shared many years together raising the children in a loving environment.

Henri Ola was a lady of great integrity, she had a wonderful sense of humor and possessed the characteristics to interact with all individuals. She never met a stranger and loved by many. She was a positive and encouraging lady.

Henri Ola loved giving and helping people and she would give her last. Henri Ola's generosity was extended far beyond family which often included people she didn't know.

Henri Ola was an excellent seamstress. She learned to sew at a young age with little to no directions.

She sewed for models, clubs, made custom wedding dresses, and evening gowns.

Henri Ola was a great cook. Her delicious homemade cakes & pies were enjoyed by many. Her cooking is missed the most by her grandchildren who looked forward to eating her delicious food.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories. One daughter, Donna Rogers of Brandon, Mississippi and one son Freeman (Niki) Rogers, Jr. of Pearl, Mississippi. (10) Grandchildren, (18) Great Grand children, and one Great Great Granddaughter. One brother Carl Turner (Edna) of Pearl, Mississippi. A special son Bobby Williams, of Brandon, Mississippi. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
