“ Momma Wells, there is never a time that we don't stop by when we are in town, nor have there ever been a time when you didn't shower us with love and hospitality. Your homecoming came as a surprise, but God knows best, and you are one of his strongest soldiers. I know your a great beacon of light in heaven as you were here on earth. With Love, The Johnson Family💕💕💕

“ I've known Ms. Irma since I was 6-years-old. She did her student teaching with my mother, Dorothy Cannon. She became special to our entire family. She and I kept in touch with each other. I called her Sweet Lady. She was such a beautiful soul and a wonderful light in the world.

I'm praying for comfort and strength for her family as they navigate these difficult days.

A light has gone from so many.. friends, church members. Teachers, students , and her sweet family. I will miss this special lady who cared genuinely for others. Yet, like the Good Book says, "Absence from the body is Presence with the Lord". She is there and she is watching. Love you my friend, Anita Wilson
