

Mr. Isaiah Thompson

February 9, 1991 - October 2, 2019

Isaiah Thompson, our baby boy was born on February 9, 1991 in New Brunswick, NJ to Harry Thompson and Nancy Ratliff Hopkins. He was one of two children. He entered eternal rest on October 2, 2019 in Mendenhall, MS, Simpson County Hospital. Isaiah attended Abundant Life Christian Academy and Murrah High School in Jackson, MS, where he was raised with sibling Davina Thompson.

Isaiah joined Cathedral A.M.E. Zion Church in 2001. He sang in the children's choir, under the leadership of the late Reverend Dr. John C. Evans, Jr.

Isaiah was a quiet storm with his Big Beautiful Smile, and liked by many. If you met him one time, you were convinced you had a friend for life. His character continued to show and his faith never wavered. He trusted in the God he really and truly loved until the very end. Well done, Isaiah. Isaiah is preceded in death by his grandparents, Arthur and Nancy Ratliff and Pinkie Thompson; uncle, Dennis Ratliff; aunt, Rebecca Ratliff and cousin, Tracy Ratliff. He leaves to cherish his memories; his loving parents, Harry L. Thompson of Braxton, MS, Nancy Ratliff Hopkins of Slidell, LA; one sibling, Davina Thompson of Trenton, NJ; six uncles, Arthur Ratliff (Deloris), Arotha Ratliff (Karen), John Ratliff (Cynthia), Eddie Ratliff, Theodore Ratliff and Kareem Thompson; five aunts, Barbara Thompson Sanders, Dorothy Howard, Lue E. Ratliff, Evelyn Sanchez (Jose), Jacqueline Ratliff and a host of others cousins and friends.

“ Incredibly blessed I was to have known Isaiah when he was an emerging teen and during his early teenage years. He was meek and well-mannered, with a quiet spirit of peace that always seemed to rest upon him. He was not a young man of many words, but spoke volumes with his kind smile and bright eyes. Isaiah will be greatly missed, Dr. Hopkins (Nancy), and never forgotten. I mourn with you and the family, and pray that you take solace in knowing that he has made it Home, and is standing in the congregation of the righteous. -----With love, prayers, and deepest sympathy, Rev. Dr. Aurelia Jones-Smith
