“ I am the Assistant Manager at a store where Jackie was a regular customer. I have been here for eleven years and Jackie and I became fast friends. When my wife and I moved from our home in Puckett, to Crystal Springs, Jackie was the first to volunteer his help. He took his Sunday (his only day off that week) and met me at daybreak with a tractor and flatbed trailer and loaded my storage building, strapped it down, and moved it an hour south, to our new home. He then helped me offload it, level it, and refill it with the stuff I had removed from it for the move. He refused to let me buy lunch, or gas money. His reason for not staying for lunch? "I gotta go help a friend." I have other memories of Jackie, but the theme is a loving, generous, helpful friend. I am better for having known him, and I am lessened by his passing. Rest in peace my friend, my brother.
