

Ms. Jacqueline Denise Purvis

March 12, 1964 - March 27, 2024

God wanted Jacqueline "Jackie" Denise Purvis as one of His angels so He called her home on Wednesday, March 27, 2024 at 6:30 PM in the cool of the evening. She gracefully took her wings.

On March 12, 1964, Jackie was born the third daughter of the late Willie Lee and Victoria Dear Purvis who both preceded her in death.

Jackie attended school within the Rankin County School District and graduated from Brandon High School, Class of 1982. She was an excellent athlete and had a competitive spirit and excelled in basketball, softball and as a cheerleader.

Jackie was known by all as a "Fashion Diva" who was passionate and well respected in Retail Management for over forty years. She encountered love for her church where she served on the Hospitality Ministry, serving to reflect the love of Christ with welcoming goodwill.

A life well lived, Jackie leaves many wonderful memories to be cherished to her only son and heart's delight, LeAustin Green; two grandchildren, Khloe and LeAustin, Jr. along with their mother, Deneal Williams; her finance, Mike Wilson; three sisters, Annette (Earnest McLaurin) Deronza Smith and Willie Mae Purvis; her lovely niece "Peppa" Nyla Green; nephews, Antonis Purvis, (Chris Countryman), Letroy (Christy) Smith, Emanuel Smith, Steven Smith, Tevin Purvis, Quantaveon Dennis, Nyland Green, and Gaqueavon Ragdale.

She leaves a legacy of LOVE from her community, state and nation; god sisters, Ferlicia (Willis) Wells, Belinda Gipson, Teresa (Jeffrey) Holyfield, Penny (Latishia) Spann, Gillian (Jewel) Gray and Joyce Williams; Life long god sisters, Byshia (Earl) Smith, Shanda (Henry) Suggs and Kim (Hosea) Paz; god families, the Greens, Medric Faulker and many other families and friends to complete the jewels in her crown.

I have known Jackie for a long time. I met her when she was manager at Dress Code. Over the years, she helped me to select hats for my outfits in which I won in one category at the 100 Black Women annual luncheon. She was like a daughter and I will miss her so much! My prayers, condolences and love to her family and all who knew and loved her. May the Ancestors welcome her to eternal rest!❤️🙏❤️

“ To the Purvis Family and Friends

We will continue to pray for your peace and healing during this time. Know Jackie lived an AMAZING and REMARKABLE life. There are no words for the legacy she has left on this community; this city; this state; this nation! Her shining personality and bright smile have made a difference in the lives of so many people everywhere, and she will live on in our hearts. We are so very grateful to have met and been a part of her life over the years and witnessed how she touched lives up close. She will truly be missed.

We thank you for allowing us our time with her as well!
