

Jacquelyn Yevette Young

January 23, 1958 - August 26, 2018

Sister Jacquelyn (Jackie) Young was the youngest of three children born to Unievieve Weathersby and the late James (Jim) Morris on January 29, 1938 in Chicago, Illinois.

She grew up in Alabama and Mississippi, and later graduated from Florence High School. Sister Young confessed Christ at an early age and later joined Rock Hill M.B. Church. She worked for the Mississippi Department of Corrections over twenty years as a Correctional Officer and later became a Sergeant.

Sister Young enjoyed going to church, outings with her best friend, talking to her mother, and being in the company of her grandchildren. She was a hard dedicated officer who loved her family and friends.

While married, she gave birth to two children. She also had two brothers, Vernon Morris and Donald Morris, father James (Jim) Morris, who preceded her in death.

“ Sergeant Jacquelyn Young was an awesome employee to work with. She handled every situation with care, firmly, and with consistency. The backbone of corrections. It was a honor to supervise her early in my supervisory career. She will surely be missed. To the family and friends you will be in prayers, may God comfort you all.
