

Ms. Jalisa Elaine McLin

November 13, 1991 - March 1, 2025

"A TIME TO BE BORN" -Jalisa Elaine McLin was born on November 13, 1991 in Jackson, Mississippi to Raymond Nick Melvin and Elease McLin. She was affectionately known as "Birdie" Birdie was preceded in death by her brother Calvin McLin and her twin brothers, Cedric and Frederick

"A TIME TO SOW" - Jalisa came into the knowledge of Christ earlier in life, joined Rehobeth International Ministries of Pearl, Mississippi under the Leadership of Apostle Bobby E. Stapleton, Jr. and later began worshipping closer to home at Blacks Chapel of Jackson, Mississippi. Despite obstacles, she knew the value of prayer and reading her Bible to communicate with God.

"A TIME TO BUILD" - After leaving Jackson Public School System, Birdie immediately went into the workforce in the area of various franchise and retail outlets.

"A TIME TO LOVE" - Jalisa was blessed with her first born, LaQaughn "Qaughn" Johnson approximately seventeen years ago. Eleven years later she brought another bundle of joy, Kalisa "Kay Kay" McLin into the world.

"A TIME TO REAP" - She enjoyed cooking, spending quality time with family, friends and listening to various genres of music. Those who knew her remembered her contagious smile and bright spirit.

"A TIME OF PEACE" - On March 1, 2025, a call came from God and only Jalisa could answer. Birdie now was with her maternal and paternal grandparents, uncles, and a special aunt Regina McLin Schaffer

"A TIME TO DIE" - Jalisa leaves to cherish her memory: her father, Raymond Melvin, Her mother Elease McLin; one (1) son, LaQaughn and one (1) daughter Kalisa; three sisters, Katrina (Rickey) Harvey, her twin Alisha McLin and baby sister Brianna McLin; three (3)brothers, Terry McLin, Nicholas McLin and Deonte Melvin; one (1) special aunt that was like a second mom, Katrina McLin.
