

Mr. Jameal Markese Smith

May 19, 1999 - December 4, 2021

On May 19, 1999, Vaneki Smith and Jessie Bullock Jr. brought into this world a handsome baby boy named Jameal "MEAL" Smith.

Jameal attended Callaway High School where he enjoyed playing basketball, giving his all on and off the basketball court.

Jameal was employed with Walmart for a few years, and was recently employed with Rockett Inc, located in Flowood, Ms.

Jameal thoroughly enjoyed living life. There was hardly ever a moment that you would catch him without his beautiful smile. Meal always helped others in whatever capacity he could. He was extremely selfless and would even offer the shirt off of his back. He enjoyed giving others encouraging words and would often always speak of God. His faith was unwavering. He knew God was real and reminded those around him that God is watching and working everything out. Jameal was a loving son, brother, friend, uncle, and soon to be dad.

On December 4, 2021, Jameal finished his race. He was called home to his eternal resting place. He is proceeded in death by his mother Vaneki Smith. His father Jessie Bullock Jr. met him at heavens gates a week later.

He leaves behind many loving memories with twelve siblings (4 boys and 8 girls) three nieces, his unborn child, his loving grandparents Sylvia smith, (Jessie and Ella Mae Bullock) aunts, cousins, and many friends.
