

Mr. James Lee Carey

September 1, 1965 - December 30, 2022

Mr. James Lee Carey affectionately known by family and friends as Wob was born September 1, 1965 in Rankin County to the late Lee Vertis and Lee Anna Myers. He was the oldest out of two children.

James was reared in a loving and Christian home by his late grandfather and grandmother Wallace and Annie Bell Carey after the death of his mother. He joined Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church at an early age.

James attended McLaurin High School and was a 1985 graduate. He also attended Mississippi Valley State University. He enjoyed watching cooking shows and football. He was a diehard Mississippi State fan and self-proclaimed grill master.

James was preceded in death by his two uncles AC Carey and Charles Carey, and two aunts Gloria Carey and Essie Quinn.

James leaves to cherish and reflect his legacy: one daughter: Laura Lewis of Florence, Mississippi; two grandchildren: Devin Lewis and Aubree Fudge of Florence, Mississippi; one brother: Steven Myers of Jackson, Mississippi; one uncle: John W (Dorothy) Carey; several close cousins; Dwana (Marcus) Williams, Jeff Carey, Jerrial S. Carey, Romallis (Phyllis) Carey Sr., Sterling Carey, Vick Carey; family friends Melinda Lewis, Dexter Calhoun Jr, and a host of cousins, relatives, and friends.
