

James Henry Mayes Jr.

May 5, 1943 - January 18, 2018

On January 18, 2018, our Heavenly Father came for his angel James Henry Mayes.

James was born May 5, 1943 in Jackson, MS to the late James Henry Mayes and Eva Brown Mayes. He was preceded in death by one brother Milton Mayes, one sister Dessree Mayes McAllister, two granddaughters Lakesha (KeKe) Mayes, and Bre'Anna Mayes.

He was raised by his Uncle Smut and Aunt Addie both whom preceded him in death. He was reared in the Pearson Community. During his lifetime journey, he was employed with Casey Lane as a mechanic. James aka "Pete" enjoyed his profession so much, that he did mechanic work in his spare time. He was able to teach others how to make repairs to their vehicles and much pride was taken in doing so. In 2002, his health began to fail, which caused him to discontinue his hard work as a mechanic.

He was a member of Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

He leaves to cherish his devoted wife, Lucille Mayes; two daughters; Dorothy "Dessa" Harper and Sharon (David) Mayes Essex; four sons; James Mayes, Jr., Willie Mayes, Clyde Mayes, and Bradley Mayes; one sister; Joann Stewart of Detroit, Michigan; four brothers-in-laws and three sisters-in-law, twenty grandchildren, and six great grandchildren. A host of nieces, nephews, and loving family and friends in Detroit, MI and the Greenfield/Pearson Community.
