

Mr. James Edward Moore

February 22, 1963 - January 8, 2025

On January 8, 2025, James Edward Moore passed away peacefully at the young age of 61. He was born on February 22, 1963 to the late George and Dora Moore of Brandon, MS. He was a life long resident of Brandon, MS and resided on Deer Ridge Trail most of his adult life.

He was known to many as "Belly". He enjoyed listening to music, fishing, and fixing vehicles. He worked a many jobs, but he was currently working for Rankin County School District for the past 15 years.

On February 22, 1989 he welcomed his one and only child Batrika Sanders.

James was preceded in death by his parents George and Dora Dean Moore, and his sister LeeDora Moore.

He is survived by child Batrika Sanders (daughter), Christopher J. Sanders (grandson), Chloe Sanders (granddaughter), Gregory Moore Sr. (brother), sister Shirley Stingley (Timothy), and a host of nephews, niece, and cousins.

He is also survived by his longtime partner in life that he loved dearly Vickie Hughes.

Lastly, he leaves behind a loving circle of friends and special loved ones that became family and impacted his life as much as he impacted theirs: Ethel Smith, Christopher Sanders Sr., and Johnny Markham.
