

Mr. Jarvis Jarrod White

May 6, 1991 - May 8, 2021

Jarvis Jarrod White was born May 6, 1991 in Jackson, MS to Mrs. Cassandra L. White and Mr. Frank White of Jackson, MS. Jackson was called home on Saturday, May 8, 2021. Jarvis was preceded in death by his grandmother, Annie Darby of Brandon, MS and grandfather, Earnest Archie of Jackson, MS. He grew up in Jackson, MS attended Powell Middle School and later moved to Florence where he graduated from Florence High school. Jarvis was inspired by his late grandfather and his uncle, Wayne, to drive trucks. He gained his CDL license and started driving 18 wheelers. Jarvis was very outgoing and enjoyed having fun and making people laugh. He loved riding his bike, 4 wheeler, but most of all he enjoyed the times he spent with his kids. He enjoyed doing outdoor adventures and traveling with his wife, Kieonya. It was never a dull moment when he was present. He was like a daddy daycare because he always had his kids around when he could. He loved playing in water with them. He enjoyed mud riding with Shamari, Shanadi, and Big O. One of his favorite sayings "It ain't fun if I don't have enough mud on me." The bond he shared with Big O was more than just cousins; he wanted to make sure he was headed in the right direction. The tears he shed when Big O went to Air Force were tears of pure joy.

Jarvis leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Kieonya White, his children: Jakyiah White, Jalilah Liddell, Jabella Ann Love, and Kingston Eli Thurman. He also leaves his loving mother, Cassandra L White, his father, Frank White, his siblings Aerica Archie, Latoria White, Frank White, Ashley Banks, Christopher White, Shanadi Willis, and Shamari Willis. He is also survived grandmother, Bertha White and his great-grandmother Ruby Nell Anderson, his aunts Teresa Archie and Sharon White and uncle Dwayne Archie, and a host of nieces and nephews, friends and family.
