

Mr. Jessie Ray Bilbro

January 28, 1964 - May 26, 2020

Jessie Ray Bilbro was born January 28, 1964, to the late Mary Louise Bilbro and Dallas Ray Bilbro, whom both preceded him in death, in Brandon, Mississippi. On May 26, 2020, Bud departed his life peacefully at St. Dominic Hospital.

Jessie enjoyed life. He attended Northwest Rankin High School. He enjoyed sports, fishing and hunting. He also loved spending time with family and friends. He attended Rehoboth International Ministries, Pearl, MS, where he served in many ministries, such as parking, choir and marriage ministry. Jessie worked many years at Lakeside Molding, where he developed a passion for building cabinet doors. He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Janice Bilbro; a son, Colya (Jasmine) Moore; a daughter, Courtney (Ronnie) Horne; four grandchildren, Colya, Chad, Ben and Ronizyah; two brothers, Dallas L. Bilbro and Dallas R. Bilbro; five sisters, Kathy Bilbro, Laquetta Bilbro, Kimberly Bilbro, Latonya Hollaway and Sandra Hicks; a loving uncle, John David (Bill) Adams and a host of nieces and nephews.

“Jessie and I were very close in high school at NWR. We played together on the football team as linebackers, had get together a at my house at the reservoir, played guitar, and had many good times together back then. My deepest sympathy goes out to all his family and friends. Jessie will be sorely missed and fondly remembered.
