

Mrs Jessie Lee Jennings

May 5, 1960 - December 23, 2020

Mrs. Jessie Lee Jennings was born May 5, 1960 at University Medical Center to Mary Alice Stapleton and Jimmy Lee Taylor. She joined Sylvarena MB. Church at a young age and was a faithful member until her health began to fail. Her declining health resulted in her entrance into the Brandon Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Brandon, MS

Jessie was known for her sweetness, joy, kindness, and faith in Jesus Christ. She loved the Lord with all her heart. Despite her surroundings, she spent much time encouraging, and praying for others, especially her family. Her spirit was bright, quiet, and loving. Many people know her for speaking positive words and directing others to Christ. She would always try to guide other patients, who were less capable than she.

Jessie Jennings was preceded in death by her husband, Melvin Jennings, her eldest child Vincent Stapleton, her mother Mary Alice Stapleton, and father Jimmy Lee Taylor. On Wednesday, December 23, 2020 she went to reside with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

She leaves to cherish in memory her two sons, Melvin Rashad Jennings (Seattle, WA) and Casey Lamar Jennings (Seattle, WA); two sisters, Carolyn Jones (Michael Jones) and Mary Johnson; one brother Robert Glenn Smith. In addition, a host of Aunts, Uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, church members and dear friends.
