“ I remember for the longest time growing up calling Uncle Jesse Uncle Lee because as a child I was unable to pronounce Jesse. Then one day my grandma( his sister Geneva ) and my mom were in the kitchen having a conversation about my grandmother's brother Jesse and I kept asking who is Jesse who's Jesse and how come I haven't met him. Come to find out Uncle Jesse was Uncle Lee. I never knew his real name because he always answer to Uncle Lee and my mom and grandma they referred to him as Uncle Lee when speaking of him. He was always very sweet and loving and always happy to see or hear from me, I wish I would have spent more time doing those things. I know that he is now back with his brothers and sisters. Love you always and forever Uncle Lee your great-niece Kristin
