

Mr. Johnnie Adams

April 22, 1954 - July 18, 2023

Johnnie Adams was born in Hinds County, Jackson, MS on April 22, 1954, to the late Charlie James Adams and Francis Beatrice Adams. Johnnie was a member of New Jerusalem Baptist Church in Jackson, MS. He attended the Jackson public school at Wingfield High School, where he played football as a Wingfield Falcon.

Johnnie went on to attend an HBCU, Jackson State University, THEE I LOVE! where he earned his Bachelors Degree in Industrial Arts, where he was also a teacher. His workmanship and craftsmanship with wood was awesome! He also loved to support his Alma Marta by attending football games. Johnnie was also known for his martial arts skills and earned a black belt in the karate style Shorin-ryu. Johnnie had a long lasting career at Siemens Energy for 30 plus years as a wireman and later on retired and relaxed.

As a young man, Johnnie had a short union, to which 2 children were born, Johnny Clayton and Theresa (deceased).

Later, "Kun Fu" Johnnie met the love of his life, Ida M. Owens Adams and united as one on May 27, 1979. To this union 3 children were born. Johnathan Ramone Adams, Edmund James Adams, and Brandy Lashawn Adams.

On Tuesday, July 18, 2023 Johnnie gained an amazing set of wings. He

“ Unc.. I'm saddened by your passing. I wont question the lords work, but collectively as a family we will lean on each other. I'll cherish the fishing trips that you always took us on when we were kids. Something about seeing your neices and nephews smile made you happy. Get your rest
