

Mr. Justin Olajuwon Kitchens

July 3, 1990 - March 31, 2024

Justin O. Kitchens, a loving son, brother, under cousin, and friend was born on July 3, 1990 to Wilma Linson Kitchens and Charles Kitchens. Justin was the youngest grandchild of O. C. and Ikie Mae Kitchens.

Justin graduated from Florence High School in 2009. During his time at Florence High School, he played football and was a member of the bowling team. After graduation, he found joy building: relationships and cutting people's hair. Through the years, Justin embarked on several careers in retail and restaurant services until he found his passion in landscaping. Thank you to Scottie's Landscaping for giving him an opportunity. Justin could talk for hours about landscaping and the irrigation systems. He loved modifying the visual features of land and turning them into something beautiful, Justin loved being an uncle. He always wanted to know how the boys were doing in sports and school. He would always end the call by saying tell the boys I love them.

Justin united with Christ at an early age. He joined Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church where he remained until he departed this life. Justin was very active in the Youth Department, the Brotherhood, and the Usher Board.

Justin answered God's call and departed this world on Sunday, March 31,

2024, He was preceded in death by his grandparents, O.C. and Ikie Mae Kitchens, and Myrtis and Joseph Young.

He leaves to cherish his life and memories, his parents, Wilma and Charles Kitchens, sister Neshanta (Randy) Nelson of Daphne AL, two nephews, Jaden and Braylon Nelson of Daphne, AL; three uncles James Kitchens, Robert (Bobbie). Kitchens, and Willie Young all of Florence, MS; nine aunts Marie Morris of Shreveport, LA, Ruby Walker, Mary Frances Flavell of Florence, MS, Janice (Arthur) Smith of Mendenhall, MS, trma Young Barnes, Annie Young Ricks, Diane Young Wilson and Marilyn Young Purvis all of Jackson, MS; a host of cousins and friends
