“ To my dear sister-in-law. My heart is heavy since I heard about you leaving too soon. You are one of those people that once anyone met you they would have friend and a smile when they think of you. You are so loved by our family., you did so much for our brother no words could begin to tell you how much I myself could thank you for all an every thing and how much you are loved. My heart hurts to know you have left so soon. Remember God only takes the best and you definitely is the best. Sleep on my dear sister you have earned your read and the right to sister next to God. Wear your crown dear sister Walk around heaven and visit your family. You. don't have to worry about Ruben you did a great job he will be ok. Until we meet again. Hugs and kisses Kathy (pat)
